LEGASPI TOPS GRADUATES!

33RD COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

By Frances Trinna B. Echavez

Krisha Faith C. Legaspi
First Honors

Bedecked in their gala uniform, 175 boys and girls march across the aisle of the Our Lady of the Pillar Cathedral in Imus, where they receive their hard-earned grade school diplomas from Sr. Maria Rita M. Siochi, SJBP, president, JGSS Board of Trustees.

It is a time for looking forward to lives and careers that wait just beyond the horizon, and to cherish the memories of accomplishments, friendships and events that have come before.

A thanksgiving mass was held at 9 a.m. with Rev. Fr. Alain P. Manalo presiding. Right after the Mass, 1st Honors Krishia Faith Legaspi gave the opening remarks. After Legaspi's speech Sr. Ma. Veronica, Gungon, SJBP, school principal stepped to the podium, she presented the Class

Grade Three Pupils Receive First Communion

By Marie Clarie Antonette Monzon

Holy Communion is one of the seven sacraments that Catholics receive at a certain time, along with the Sacrament of Baptism, Anointing of the Sick, Penance, Confirmation, Matrimony and Holy Orders. In this sacrament, we receive the Holy Eucharist for the 1st time. We usually receive this when we are on our Third Grade.

Last December 8, 2005, the Grade Three pupils received their 1st Communion at the Imus Cathedral at 10:00 a.m. The celebration was officiated by Rev. Fr. Danilo Paraiso. The Mass' theme had fitted right for the occasion which also celebrates the feast day of the Immaculate Conception.

Third Moving Up Exercises Held

By Marie Claire Antonette Monzon

March, one of the months most loved by students. In this month, we get our diplomas and graduate in our school level. During this month, we start to set aside our books and begin to pack our things for the coming of summer.

Before this month ends, the Editorial:

Summertime Is Coming To Town!

Summer's back in town! At last, all schoolwork and deadlines take a break like us.

Summer is a time to spend with your family, friends, and relative. Most of the time, people go somewhere else where they can spend their summer. Most of them go abroad where the weather is cold.

Somehow, summer is a little sad because we have to bade friends, classmates, and teachers goodbye. But, hey! We will see them again next school year.

Anyway, students love summer because there are no classes, no homework to make and lessons to study.

So, enjoy the time with your friends before summer attacks! Also, think of what will make you enjoy the upcoming summer so you won't feel left out of everything.

Lastly, Pastorine extends its heartfelt congratulations to all the graduates of batch 2005-2006. Remember, always be true to our faith!

ANOTHER CHAPTER OF LIFE

Being a student can be compared to a book. Each book is divided into chapters and each chapter consisting of pages. Chapters in a book tell us that one topic had just ended and a new one is beginning. Pages on each chapter contain written words that detail this topic.

In the life of a student, these pages represents each day that passed. Each day that is full of memories that will be treasured and looked back to in the days to come. It is not only what we've learned in class that will be treasured but of equal importance is the time that we've spent with our classmates.

All the laughter that we shared with our classmates, the stories that we tell each other, things that we've argued and the little incidents that make our teachers mad will be remembered not by writing but by what is felt when we think of our classmates. It is the different personalities that each of us has that adds color to the life of a student.

As we, the graduating students, close another chapter in our student life, mixed feelings abound. Sadness, because we might loose some of our classmates who will be moving to other schools. Happiness, because of the memories we've shared together that we will take to the next chapter. Excitement, because of the new people that we will be meeting who will again add color to the pages of our life.

What we had learned in our classes we write it in our notebooks and imprint it in our mind but what we have experienced in school we write it in the chapters of our life... in our hearts. To the Batch of 2005-2006, Congratulations and keep on writing those pages.

Pinoy Ako, Proud Ako!

We are all Filipinos, of course. In all occasions, especially those that occur in schools, Filipino Contests are always included. It can be any kind of competition; play, singing, dancing, deliberation of poems, and stuff like that.

And so, the Filipino Contest was one of the competitions that had been held last February 9, at the Multipurpose Hall. The said contest was alienated in three divisions according to the students' grade levels: Sabayang Pag-awit for the Pre-elementary stage; Tula for Primary level;

Many enjoyed watching the contest. Some of the parents and guardians also came to see the said competition. "I'm nervous but I will do my best to win," said Justin Valmores, a grade six performer. Another impersonator from grade five, named Junel Roxas said jittery, "Kinakabahan ako pero I'm expecting na maraming papalakpak sa'kin especially my fans in grades five and six."

Finally, the winners had been declared. For the first division

Little Big Shepherdines with their advisers.

Little Big Shepherdine

By Clarissa Mae J. Janairo

Who's not familiar with the show Little Big Star? We can watch this show during Saturdays at ABS-CBN. This is a singing contest for children who want to match their singing prowess with other children of the same age bracket. Some join this contest just to have an experience while others want to achieve their dreams of being the Little Big Star.

As Jesus Good Shepherd School celebrated its 41st Foundation day, they had a contest entitled "Little Big Shepherdine" open for Jr. Kinder- Sr. Kinder and grades 1-6. It was divided to three categories: category A for Jr. and Sr. Kinder, category B for grades 1, 2, and 3 and category C for 4, 5, and 6 graders. Each section has one representative and in the end only one representative will be left for each grade level. Representatives from each grade level will compete with each other in their own category and only one winner will be declared as Little Big Shepherdine per category.

Vincent Lorence Remulla of Senior Kinder beat Maria Reena Fiona Jarin of Junior Kinder for category A. For category B, Una Ghennievin Haguisan won over Angeolina Jane Azuro, Megan Tapawan and Angela Mae Salazar. Janne Maureen Medina, Jeanne Pauline Orbe and Krishnia Faith Legaspi of grades 4, 5 and 6 vied for category C and which was won by Janne Maureen Medina.

Congratulations to all the participants and pupils who made Little Big Shepherdine a success.

Filipinas Circa" on its First Time in JGSS

By Mary Clarence dela Viña

and Ma. Lorelaine Nollodo

A one-of-a-kind production was held last March 4, 2006 in JGSS. This was the "Filipinas Circa 2006", a collaboration of various clubs namely, JGSS Children's Choir, the High School Glee Club, JGSS Dance Troupe, JGSS Theater Arts, with the Student Council, Parents Council, Faculty and Staff, and Pastorelle Sisters.

The production was shown in three-time performances: 9:00-11:00 a.m. was the slot for the Kinder up to Primary level students: 2:00-4:00p.m. was the time allotted for the Intermediate level and 3rd Year and 4th Year High School students and the time granted to guests, 1st year and 2nd year students was from 6:00-8:00p.m.

The clubs mentioned took turns in performing on stage. On the first part, our country was honored by the JGSS Children's Choir who led the singing of the Philippine National Anthem. The Opening Remarks were given by Mrs. Elma Novelo, teacher of the High School Department and one of the advisers of the SCO. The "Song of Creation" was sung by the High School Glee Club led by Mr. Arthur Medina as their choirmaster. The "Song of Creation" was also interpreted by the JGSS Dance Troupe. The mood was changed into nationalistic when the JGSS Children's Choir sang an ethnic song entitled "Idemdem Malida" followed by Dance Troupe's "Dugso", "Makatanod", and "Uya-uy".

It was time for the Dulaang Munting Pastol (Theater Arts) to give their share of their talents on stage through their plays, "Planting of the Cross of the Spaniards" and "Baptism". A short story showing the life of our national hero, Dr. Jose P. Rizal was also included in the skit. Again, the JGSS Dance Troupe returned on stage to perform three dances – "Cariñosa", "Bayluhan", and "Bailode Los Pateros".

A speech choir was also shown by the Theater Arts members in their "Kalayaan". The part one of the production was ended by an intermission number from the Parent's Council Organization with the famous song "Gasolina", they were cheered by the audience as they dance on-stage.

As the second part started, the audience got even more excited. The JGSS Dance Troupe opened it with the dance "Salakot". The Children's Choir sung folksongs medley with the joint performance of the Dance Troupe's "Kasadyahan". Finally, the Faculty and Staff Organization (FSO) appeared and danced "Tango". "Maalaala Mo Kaya" was sung by the High School Glee Club. The FSO again displayed their dancing prowess in their "Boogie" and "Swing". Edsa Revolution was reenacted by the Theater Arts, Sr. Shirley Torrente and Mr. Edelberto Abordo's performance of "Magkaisa". Again, the SCO and the Dance Troupe appeared through a pop dance. All these showing off of talents was highlighted by the final song "Mabuhay Ka Filipino", a rendition by all of the performers.

Filipino Evolution

By Blanche Agatha A. Liwanag

Every year the past historic events of our country are being recalled by presenting programs, by giving parties and celebrations, in that way we can honor our Filipino Heroes.

The Shepherdines celebrated the 41st Foundation Day last February 11 by presenting programs about Filipino Evolutions. It was highlighted by selected pupils from different grade levels. The Junior and Senior Kinder showed how Negrito lived. The lifestyle and habitats of Indones was portrayed by the Grade 1. While the Grade 2 did an interpretative dance of Malays culture. The Filipino was influenced by the Chinese, an interpretative dance from the Grade 3 gave meaning to it.

Through the years, our country had many riches and wealth that's why many countries want to conquer it. The persecution of the Filipinos for over 300 years was dramatized by the Grade 4 pupils. Grade 5 pupils presented how Japanese governed the country. Last were the Americans, who freed us from the Land of the Rising Sun and were given life by the Grade 6 pupils.

Check Out the Booths!

By Blanche Agatha Liwanag

Different booths are practically made during Foundation days for fun and funds. During the 41st Foundation Day of JGSS, different organizations made different booths for the special celebration.

SCO booths, the Jail Booth where some students get wanted and were put in jail! They also had the House of Magic booth, Friendship booth, and Novelty booth.

The following booths were managed by SCO High school Department: the Henna tattoo booth, the face painting booth and dedication booth.

FSO booths were Videoke for a Cause and Ice Cream & Cotton candy booths. For the PCO booths, they sold clothes and other stuffs for cheap prices. And the last but not the least is the JGSCC roletta and tamboliolo booth.

A Successful Feast of Señor de Sto. Niño

By Dianne Saporantos

January is known to many as the month of Sr. de Sto. Niño. Many devotees of the child Jesus celebrate His feasts on different dates and places.

Like last January 29 at St. Michael's Parish in Bacoar, Cavite, they celebrated the feast of the Sto. Niño. The organizers of the event were Mr. Ronald Rodriguez, Mr. Ronald Hernandez, Mr. Lito Mancanes, Mr. Greg Eusebio, and Mr. Ramon Guinto.

The said event was attended by the parishioners, devotees, together with the 700 grade 3 pupils from seven public schools who had their First Communion. The highlight of the event was the celebration of the Holy Mass presided by Rev. Fr. Rosendo Ignacio with the special participation JGSS Children's Choir, conductor Mr. Patrick Frias and Advisers Sr. Shirley, Sr. Roselle and Mrs. L. Frias were also present in the said event. After the Holy Mass, a lively Karakol was held on the streets outside the church participated by the residents and the loud fireworks added sounds to the celebration.

As part of the annual tradition of having Hermano de Sto. Niño, Mr. Gilbert Medina Ermitano and family was chosen by the organizers as the year's sponsor and their son, Vince Gilbert Medina Ermitano, is the Hermano de Sto. Niño.

Last February 9, the Elementary Department's Math Contest was held. It was held at the Multi-purpose Hall of the High School Building. Math Wizards came face to face to give their share of knowledge. All the contestants were determined to win.

There were three categories. The first division was for the Pre-Elementary pupils to show how good they are in Math. The second category is for the Primary Level. Third category was for the Intermediate level.

Rafael Hideo Kuwae and Vincent Lorence Remulla were declared winners for Category A. As for Category B, Queenie Jayne Papa, Leo Paulo Andaya and Tristan Mapanao emerged as winners while Rolando Jamir, Jessica Rañola and Gian Carlo Diego Encinares had outsmarted their fellow contestants in the third division.

Camerino Elementary School from December 1-2 of last year.

With the help of school paper Advisers Mr. Patrick Frias and Ms. Ivy Guevarra, Pastorine received the following honors under the English Category: 10th Best School Paper, 3rd Best Editorial Page, 8th Best Sports Page, and 10th Best Layouting. It is also good to note that Pastorine is the only school paper from Imus which made it to the final list.

School Principal Sr. Veronica Gungon, SJBP, expressed her warmest congratulations to the people behind Pastorine. "They strived to come up with it, and it is their first issue so it's a good record for JGSS. I am hoping that they will continue what they have started and I am expecting them to be very good for their next issues."

Congratulations and way to go Pastorine! (Ma. Carmina Gloria Loyola)

My Name is Kim Sam Soon

By Dianne Joy D. Saporantos

My Lovely Prokopia (or My Name is Kim Sam Soon) is a romantic comedy that is often touted as Korea's answer to UK's "Bridget Jones". "My Name is Kim Sam Soon" is also a comically describing a contract romance between pastry chef Kim Sam-Soon and Hyun Jin-Hon, a young chairman of renowned confectionery. At the end, the two main characters Kim and Cyrus will realize that they have feelings for each other and will end up together.

The drama starts off with Sam Soon losing her job on Christmas Eve and also being dumped by her boyfriend. She runs accidentally into the men's bathroom and sulks. Hyun Jin-Hun aka Sam Shik finds her and gives her a bit of advice which doesn't seem to help Sam Soon's situation. Embarrassed Sam Soon runs out of the restroom.

Sam Soon is your extraordinary girl. She's funny, goofy, bold, and not afraid to state her opinion. To some, she appears ill-mannered but to others, she's just a little bit dangerous!

Starring Hyun Bin and Kim Sun Ah, No wonder it is the highest rating Korean drama last year...the drama is full of interesting and attractive characters. All characters have unique personalities and intriguing traits.

The plot of the comedy is simple. But it is definitely a treat to everyone. You will be able to relate to some characters in the story. They get their brokenhearted, get over their failed romance and move on. They work, get tired, laugh and cry.

Nanny McPhee sets up an ideal for the children to aspire to, but it is a different, more humane one than typical, one not of perfection but with a continual improvement. We know the kids will sometimes still be unruly, but they've learned to seek to better themselves. Director Kirk Jones describes it thus: "Nanny McPhee walks into a family full of good people with good intentions and makes them all see their own goodness and each other's goodness. She doesn't make them feel good. She shows that they're already good."

Movie Review

BLUE MOON: A STORY OF SECOND CHANCES

By Marie Claire Antonette M. Monzon

True love happens only once in a blue moon. The Metro manila Film Festival entry Blue Moon proves this right as it tells the long lost love story of Manuel (Mark Herras) and Cora (Jennylyn Mercado).

Manuel is caught in between two Corazons' love: his first love Azon (Pauleen Luna) and his childhood friend Cora. When a war broke, Azon was forced to leave Manuel and go to Baguio but before she left, she gave Manuel her address and told him to find her. At the end of the war, Manuel met Cora again. Later, he fell in love with her and married her. After a few years, Cora finds out that Manuel still longs for Azon and decides to leave her family to cure her depression.

Manuel decides to look for Cora and to confess his real feelings as his time on earth flies away fast. Will Manuel see the blue moon once again and find another chance? Watch the movie and find out as his son (Christopher de Leon) and his grandson (Dennis Trillo) also awaits for the blue moons of their lives.

The movie is inspired by an old love song of the same title, and the latter was inspired by a natural phenomenon: a blue moon, a rare case wherein a second full moon appears in just a month. In the movie, blue moon means second chances, second opportunities for the characters to tell their loved-ones how much they love them despite the lost of the first chance.
