PAULINE FAMILY RETREAT

July 6 – 27, 2009

“O how good and delightful to live as brothers and sisters all united.”

The Pauline Family Retreat facilitated by Sr. Elena Bosetti, sjbp, was given to three batches of retreatants composed by the Society of St. Paul (SSP), Daughters of St. Paul (FSP), the Pious Disciples of the Divine Master (PDDM), the Pastorelle Sisters (SJBP), and the Carmelite Center of Spirituality, Tagaytay City. The 3rd batch exclusively given to the Pastorelle Sisters for 8 days from July 20-27, was held instead at the Provincial House, Broadway Avenue, New Manila, Quezon City.

Anunciacionists (IOLA). Both the 1st batch on July 6-10, 2009 and 2nd batch on July 13-17, 2009, were held at the

It was indeed a grace-filled journey with Saint Paul reflecting and praying on his letter to the Galatians on the first five days, and with the 1st letter of St. Peter focused on chapter 5 on the last three days. We are deeply grateful to Sr. Elena not only for her big heart to share her expertise to the Pauline Family, but more so for the burning love and zeal by which she personified and communicated Sts. Peter and Paul in our midst.

Our heartfelt thanks likewise goes to the community of Sr. Elena in Modena, the Italy Central North Province, the General Government, and all who made this much awaited Pauline Family event possible. May God bless you!

Family sharing the unique gifts that we are to one another as brothers and sisters, and beloved children of Blessed James Alberione.

It is with much hope that we look forward in the years ahead to another joyful and meaningful reunion among us in the Pauline

As we renew our “YES of maturity, it is but fitting that we lift up our “confessio laudis” for everything that has been--to the Triune God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, for the richness of His mercy and love!
